

CONSIDERING --- CROSSROADS

A workshop exploring change in rural Alabama through our shared history and literature.

Join us for this one-day workshop inspired by the Smithsonian traveling exhibit Crossroads: Change in Rural America, on display at the Historic Triana Health Clinic, Feb. 14-April 12. Tour included!

Presenting scholars:

- Poets Tina Mozelle Braziel and Jim Braziel, University of Alabama at Birmingham
- Historian Julia Brock, Ph.D., The University of Alabama
- Teaching artist Allison Upshaw, Ph.D., Stillman College

Open to all! Participating educators will receive a $100 stipend and 5 professional development credits.

February 23, 2024 | 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

St. Paul Triana United Methodist Church

More info:

205.558.3992

landerson@alabamahumanities.org

alabamahumanities.org/super-teacher

Register here:

