

Jenice Riley Memorial Scholarship

$1,000 awards for K-8 Alabama history teachers!

What is the Jenice Riley Memorial Scholarship?

The Alabama Humanities Alliance annually awards these teacher scholarships to support K-8 Alabama educators who excel at helping students engage with history and civics. Scholarships are awarded through a competitive application process.

Teachers can use their $1,000 award for history- and civics-related classroom projects or for professional development.

Who can become a Riley Scholar?

- Current K-8 Alabama educators
- Past Riley Scholars may apply again
- Public and private school teachers eligible
- Teaching areas of focus: history, civics, and geography

Since 2003, the
Alabama Humanities
Alliance has awarded:

104

Riley Scholars

$100,000+
in teacher scholarships

W. Edgar Welden Fund for Education

Donate to support Alabama's teachers!

The Welden Fund is named in honor of Edgar Welden, a philanthropist and past AHA board member who championed — and funded — this vital scholarship.

Learn more:

205.558.3992 | landerson@alabamahumanities.org |
alabamahumanities.org/jenice-riley-memorial-scholarship

The Riley Scholarships honor the late Jenice Riley — an extraordinary teacher and the daughter of former Gov. Bob Riley and former First Lady Patsy Riley.

Apply by April 30, 2024!

